DAYTON, Ohio, July 5, 1973 --- Educational Foundations at the University of Dayton invites you to hear Professor Thomas Dunn of the University of Toledo demonstrate Performance Based Teacher Education (PBTE) in O'Leary Auditorium, July 10, on UD's campus.

Since PBTE, programmed learning, and Computer Assisted Instruction (CAI) are results of the work of B.F. Skinner, the audience will have the opportunity of using a set of tapes on Skinner produced by the Center of Study of Democratic Institutions.

A second part to the presentation will follow within 10 days.

An American English study program for foreign students will be offered by the Continuing Education Division of the University of Dayton beginning July 16.

The six weeks intensive study program is open to all persons for whom English is not a native language. Students will be grouped according to their present ability and will proceed at their own pace.

Emphasis will be placed on speaking, reading and writing as well as listening, research and study skills. Cultural orientation to the U.S.A. is an integral part of the program.

The program will run from July 16 to August 24 and will meet 9:00-12:00 and 1:00-4:00 Monday thru Friday. Room and board are available. For information, call Nora Duffy, Continuing Education, 229-2347.

A Corporate Planning workshop will be conducted August 1 by Dr. Subhash Jain at the University of Dayton.

Aimed at middle management both in line and staff positions, the workshop will focus on the design and use of formal structured procedures and activities that are associated with the act of planning beyond the normal time horizon of the budget.

Specifically: (1) How to make better use of economic, business and market information in your future planning now. (2) How to analyze your resources and operations with a critical eye. (3) How to search logical decisions and implement them successfully.

Dr. Subhash Jain, Associate Professor of Marketing, has done extensive research in the area of corporate planning and has a wide experience in planning as a consultant to private corporations, and has recently published a book on the subject.

For additional information call Nora Duffy, Continuing Education, 229-2347.
